

Will Ridalls CerTHE MSc

Planning Consultant

Previous employment

2021—2025

Planning Apprentice
*PCL Planning Ltd

Will has experience in preparing and submitting planning applications and appeals for a variety of development proposals, as well as engaging with local plan production.

Will joined the team in 2021, undertaking a degree apprenticeship, achieving a master's degree in Urban Planning from UWE Bristol. He is now working to become a chartered member of the RTPI.

Projects

- Preparing and managing minor planning applications for a range of development, including residential dwellings, changes of use, alterations to buildings, and commercial schemes.
- Supporting the team with planning appeals, including Hearings (in Exeter and South Hams) and Inquiries (in Exeter, South Hams, Mid Devon and Somerset).
- Supporting the preparation and submission of complex major planning applications, including residential, mixed use and commercial schemes.
- Engaging with site promotion and local plan representations.
- Managing Non-Material Amendments and S73 submissions.
- Producing site appraisals and providing planning advice.